

Sasakwa Lodge – Singita Serengeti

Sasakwa Lodge rambles along a rocky promontory perched above the rolling plains. With the best views of virtually anywhere, Sasakwa is without doubt one of the most deluxe accommodations ever built in East Africa.

Sasakwa Lodge is situated on top of Sasakwa Hill with panoramic views of the Serengeti Plains. The lodge is built in the style of an East African ranch house and consists of ten luxurious cottages offering between one and four bedrooms. Cottage no. 7 (4 bedrooms) even contains a basement nanny flat which has 2 x twin bedrooms, both en-suite.

Each air-conditioned suite features a bedroom, lounge with fireplace, verandah, en-suite bathroom with bath, shower, dressing area, guest bathroom, guest toilet, private living room, private plunge pool and veranda with Swarovski spotting scope. Cottages feature a personal bar and fridge, electronic safe, air-conditioning, direct dial telephone (US lines), wireless internet access and fire replaces. There is wheelchair access to certain cottages.

Were Karen Blixen, the author of Out of Africa, to arrive at Sasakwa today, she would recognise a spot imbued with the same aesthetic that she lavished on her beloved home in the Ngong hills outside Nairobi.

As part of the Grumeti Reserves, Sabora Plains Camp is set in a private reserve which offers horse riding, walking safari, archery, tennis and bike riding, amongst other activities.

- Super luxury camp.
- Rooms have private pool.
- Large communal pool.
- Tennis court.
- On site equestrian centre.
- Great year round game viewing
- 10 luxurious cottages with AC, phones, TV and Wi-Fi.

Our View

Well that's enough spiel about Karen Blixen...but that description is actually pretty much spot on.

Designed as a colonial old hunting house, complete with animals foot ashtrays, there are certain parts of Sasakwa that would put off various travelers completely. But there is no doubt that this lodge has the best views, by far, of any Serengeti lodge. (In fact we would put the views as pretty much the best in Africa!).

The views match the luxury of the lodge and both are complemented by a truly superb kitchen - the best meals of anywhere in the country. The rooms and cottages are stunning, with their own superb views and attention to details that would rival any top class western hotel. Overall we really like this lodge - it is expensive but it really is very VERY good!
