

Ras Nungwi Zanzibar

This beach hotel aspires towards fulfilling a beach haven idyll, being both relaxed and uncomplicated while providing a conscientious service. Rooms are simply but comfortably designed, and recent renovations have added to the simple and airy feel.

There is a choice of three types of room. The terraced lodge rooms are all self contained and each has their own veranda, and of these rooms 31 and 30 actually have excellent views of the sea and a huge shared veranda, with an adjoining door that make these an excellent choice for families, or a couple of couples. The superior and superior deluxe chalets are all detached or semi-detached, and all have a private balcony and views across the bay and a choice of air conditioning or a fan. The distinction between the two is Super Deluxe are newer, larger, and afford even greater privacy as they are situated on the far western side of the hotel. Fitted mosquito nets in all rooms give a soft and romantic feel, and the atmosphere and aspect make this a popular choice for honeymooning couples.

Ras Nungwi Beach Hotel is ideally located for diving the north east coast and Mnemba atoll, and the popular dive centre provides equipment and guides for all abilities. Deep-sea fishing, wind-surfing, and dhow cruises are all equally available, and there is a table-tennis table and beach volleyball net for action enthusiasts.

Our View

A truly fantastic hotel; without doubt one of the very best on the entire African coast. The beach here is the best on Zanzibar and unlike much of the east coast, is free of hawkers and general hassle. Nungwi village, just down the coast, is a great place to go out and have a few drinks or a bite of lunch - something which so many of the Zanzibar hotels can't offer.

Ras Nungwi is a great compromise on all fronts; great beach, good food and service, nice rooms, and it has the faculties of a resort but with only 31 rooms. So all in all it is a great choice for those looking for a little more of an active destination.
